GRADES K–5 · 5 DAYS · 10 WORKSHEETS · 25 PAGES

TEACHER NOTES

Music Sub Plans K–5 · 5 no-prep emergency days

WHAT IT IS

Five complete music lessons a substitute can teach with no tech, no instruments and no music background. Each day has a step-by-step plan with words to say, timed steps, a closing game, and two worksheets: one for grades K–2 and one for grades 3–5.

THE FIVE DAYS

1. Sound Detectives: listening and describing sounds.
2. Rhythm Readers: steady beat and reading rhythm.
3. Loud & Soft, Fast & Slow: dynamics and tempo.
4. Rhythm Composers: composing and performing rhythms.
5. Music Word Games: music vocabulary.

Use them in any order. The welcome sheet has a “Day #” column so the sub knows which day each class gets next.

SET UP THE SUB TUB (ABOUT 15 MINUTES, ONCE)

1. Fill in the welcome sheet (page 3).
2. Print the plans, the rhythm chart and the sub report; copy each worksheet for your largest class.
3. Put each day in its own folder with its worksheets, and add the answer keys.

WHY SUBS CAN TEACH IT

Every rhythm has its syllables (ta, ti-ti, shh, ta-a) printed under the notes, so the sub can lead echo clapping without reading music. Games use only voices, hands and an eraser.

ABOUT THE NOTATION

Rhythms are in 4/4 and use quarter notes, paired eighth notes, quarter rests, half notes and whole notes, engraved with a professional music font. Every rhythm was read back by computer and checked for 4 beats per bar, except the bars on Day 2 that students must spot as wrong; every key comes from the same checked data.

STANDARDS

Supports reading rhythm notation (MU:Pr4.2), creating rhythms (MU:Cr2.1) and describing what students hear (MU:Re7.2), National Core Arts Standards, Music, grades K–5.

GOOD TO KNOW

- Prints well in black and white.
- K–2 sheets have read-aloud parts; the plans tell the sub which ones.
- Rhythm syllables follow the common ta / ti-ti system. If your students use counting or other syllables, add a note on the welcome sheet.

All lessons, chants, games, words and art are original. No songs, lyrics or copyrighted characters are used.

MUSIC SUB PLANS

Days at a glance and game bank

FOR THE SUB

5 days, any order

Each day is one 30–45 minute music class. Every day works for any grade K–5: use the plan page, then hand out the K–2 or 3–5 sheet. The days can be used in any order.

DAY	LESSON	K–2 SHEET	3–5 SHEET	PLAN PAGE
1	Sound Detectives Listening and describing sounds	My Listening Log page 7	Listening Log page 8	6
2	Rhythm Readers Steady beat and reading rhythm	Rhythm Readers page 10	Rhythm Math page 11	9

GAME BANK · No-prep games for extra time. No equipment, no tech.

GAME	HOW TO PLAY	DAY
Echo Me	Say or clap a short line; the class repeats it exactly. Change the dynamics (soft, strong) and the speed.	1
Poison Rhythm	Pick a chart line as the poison. Clap lines; the class echoes all but the poison rhythm.	2
Hot and Cold Dynamics	Hide an eraser. The class claps softly when the seeker is far away and louder when close.	3
Silent Conductor	A student conducts the class's claps: hands far apart = loud, close = soft, fists = stop.	3
Rhythm Telephone	Pass a clapped rhythm from student to student. Does it arrive the same?	5
Freeze Beat	Move in place to a steady beat; freeze when the beat stops.	5
Copy My Sound	A leader makes a body-percussion sound; everyone copies; the leader picks the next leader.	1

TIPS FOR A CALM CLASS ·

- Use the teacher's attention signal from the welcome sheet (page 3), or clap a short rhythm and have the class clap it back.
- "Strong voice, not shouting" keeps the forte parts happy and safe.
- If a game gets too loud, switch to a worksheet or Freeze Beat.

SOUND DETECTIVES

Day 1 · Listening and describing sounds · no tech, no prep

DAY 1

Sub plan

GOAL
Students listen closely and describe sounds as loud or soft, high or low, long or short.

YOU NEED
Pencils, the worksheets, and a few classroom objects (pencil, paper, a book, keys).

COPIES
K–2: page 7
3–5: page 8
about 40 min

STEP BY STEP · Italic lines are words you can say.

5 min Step 1

ECHO ME

Say: "Good morning, musicians! I'm your guest teacher today. Let's warm up. Echo me!" Say each line in a clear voice and let the class repeat it: Ears are on. Eyes are up. Hands are still. Let's make music! Do it again once quietly and once in a strong voice (strong, not shouting).

5 min Step 2

ONE-MINUTE LISTEN

Everyone closes their eyes (or looks down) and stays silent for one minute. Say: "Count how many different sounds you hear." Then ask 3 or 4 students to share one sound each.

10 min Step 3

GUEST TEACHER SOUND SHOW

Students close their eyes while you make a sound; they guess what it was. Try: tap a pencil on a desk, crumple paper, knock on the door, clap once, rattle keys, zip a bag, flip book pages, whisper "hello". For each one ask: Loud or soft? High or low? Long or short?

15 min Step 4

LISTENING LOG

Hand out the worksheet: K–2 My Listening Log (page 7), 3–5 Listening Log (page 8). Read the directions aloud. Make the sounds again, one at a time, while students fill in their sheets.

5 min Step 5

COPY MY SOUND

One student makes a short body-percussion sound (pat, clap, snap, stomp). The class copies it. The leader picks the next leader.

Extra time? Play Hot and Cold Dynamics or Freeze Beat from the game bank (page 4). Short class? Skip step 2 and keep the worksheet.

RHYTHM READERS

Day 2 · Steady beat and reading rhythm · no tech, no prep

DAY 2

Sub plan

GOAL
Students keep a steady beat and read and clap simple rhythms with rhythm syllables.

YOU NEED
Pencils, the worksheets, the rhythm chart (page 5). No music reading needed: the syllables are printed under every note.

COPIES
K–2: page 10
3–5: page 11
about 40 min

STEP BY STEP · Italic lines are words you can say.

5 min Step 1

COPY THE BEAT

Pat a slow, steady beat on your legs. Say: "Copy me!" Switch to clapping, then tapping shoulders, at the same speed. Say: "This steady pulse is called the beat."

10 min Step 2

RHYTHM CHART ECHOES

Show the rhythm chart (page 5) or copy one line at a time on the board. Clap and say a line; the class echoes. ta = one clap, ti-ti = two quick claps in one beat, shh = a silent beat (open hands), ta-a = one clap held for 2 beats. K–2 use lines 1–4; 3–5 use all 8.

15 min Step 3

WORKSHEET

K–2 Rhythm Readers (page 10): read Part B aloud. 3–5 Rhythm Math (page 11). Answer keys are on page 22.

10 min Step 4

POISON RHYTHM

Pick one chart line as the poison rhythm and show it. Clap other lines; the class echoes. When you clap the poison rhythm, everyone stays silent. Anyone who claps it becomes a judge. Change the poison line each round.

Extra time? Let students take turns as the leader for Poison Rhythm. Short class? Shorten step 2 to lines 1–4 and keep the worksheet.

10 min Step 2

HOT AND COLD DYNAMICS

One student covers their eyes while another hides the eraser in the room. The seeker looks for it while the class claps a steady beat: soft when the seeker is far away, louder as they get closer. Play 3 or 4 rounds.

5 min Step 3

TEMPO WALK

Say: "Tempo means how fast or slow." Clap a beat while students walk in place (or pat their legs). Try very slow (largo), walking speed (andante), fast (allegro), very fast (presto). When you stop, they freeze.
